CALL FOR PAPERS
The sixteenth annual meeting of the
Foucault Circle
Sydney, Australia
June 29-July 2, 2016
(Hosted by the University of New South Wales)

We invite individual papers and roundtable proposals (4-5 panelists) on any aspect of Foucault's work. Studies, critiques, and applications of Foucauldian thinking are all welcome. We will aim for a diversity of topics and perspectives.

Abstracts should be prepared for anonymous review, and are to be submitted to the program committee chair, Richard A. Lynch, by email (lynchrichardasau.edu) on/before Friday, Nov. 20, 2015. Please indicate "Foucault Circle submission" in the subject heading, and include the abstract as a "docx" attachment. Individual paper submissions require an abstract of no more than 750 words; roundtable submissions require a 500-word abstract describing the theme and 150-word summaries of each panelist’s talking points. Program decisions will be announced in December.

Each speaker will have approximately 35 minutes for paper presentation and discussion combined—papers should be a maximum of 3000 words (15-20 minutes reading time). Roundtables will have approximately 50 minutes total for presentation and discussion combined; individual panelists should plan to speak for no more than 5-7 minutes. In addition to paper and roundtable sessions, the conference will also feature a "reading group" discussion session (texts TBA) open to all participants.

Logistical information about lodging, transportation, and other arrangements will be available after the program has been announced.
